

BUILDING COHESIVE TEAMS

How is your organization building cohesive team environments?

Successful teams are critical to support long-range company objectives and goals. Meridian Resources offers an in-depth analysis and professional feedback session to promote healthy dialog within the team in order to build trust, strengthen relationships, and enhance communications.

The program integrates Patrick Lencioni's Five Behaviors of a Cohesive Team™ model with the Everything DiSC® assessment. This powerful and highly interactive experience stimulates and empowers essential teams for success.
